The Middiette

FOREWORD

We are publishing this book with the intention of bringing to you, the reader, a glimpse \overline{w} our school life.

We have not followed a definite illustrated thems. Instead, we have tried m make our pictures tell the story W 1957 and 1958.

We hope you enjoy the contents and feel that this annual is one of the best,

We want to express our appreciation to the school, the faculty, the underclassmen, and overyone who contributed as much. We want to especially thank Miss Hoover for hor advice and help in getting this book ready for publication.

We Salute the Achievements and Future of the Class of '58

Lives of great men all remind us We can make our lives sublime, And, departing, leave behind us Footprints on the sands of time.

Let us, then, be up and doing, With a heart for any fate; Still achieving, still pursuing, Learn to labour and to wait.

PONDERING YOUR FUTURE?

Of course you me -- evolyness graduate is pondering his or her future. And you began your deliberations as far back in your feeshman year, and perhaps you are STLL trying to come to a decision. We have a suggestion, We'd tike to thisse you had not your ring!

Look to the newspaper, radio or television fields. There are literally dozens of possible directions you can turn within these fields.

You may be inclined to writing, ... all three media need writers. Pethaps you're planning a sales career, ... all three media depend on sales personnel for their existence. Thought about adverting: The smarten advertings made in the country are employed in mass communications media. Maybe you're mechanically, or electronically inclined ... ever seen a sewipaper press or a radio or television common hom?

We've only touched the surface. But this we know -- for a most satisfying existence, for a own statisfying existence, for a surface went glammonus (backed with hard work) career, any one or a combination of the above suggestions is within your grass).

Like to know more about work in these fields? Ask your counsellor to arrange a meeting for you with someone from
